

Burr and Burton Academy

ANNUAL APPRECIATION REPORT 2009 – 2010

Members of the class of '60 presented Headmaster Mark Tashjian (second from right) with a check for $33,275 at the Reunion Dinner on June 12, breaking the record for a class reunion gift. The gift includes outright gifts and planned gifts, all matched by the Rowland Endowment Challenge.

Dear Supporters of Burr and Burton,

The purpose of this letter is to recognize you and express appreciation for your support of Burr and Burton Academy. During this past school year, despite continued economic uncertainty and widespread reductions in charitable contributions, our annual giving actually increased thanks to the many individuals, corporations and foundations that chose to support this school. This is an absolutely extraordinary result and is testament to your generosity of spirit and commitment to education as the bedrock of the American Dream.

The student experience here is amazing. We hire world-class teachers, build state-of-the-art facilities, imbue this school with high expectations, and provide a staggering array of opportunities for students to develop talents, explore their passions, and discover that hard work yields outstanding results. We are committed to educating students intellectually and morally in the classroom, on the sports field, on stage, in music and dance studios, in the technology lab, and in the many other places where students find their place in this great school.

Along with relying on the financial support of generous donors, we have taken aggressive steps to ensure that we operate efficiently. Our faculty and staff voluntarily approved a pay freeze, demonstrating their own commitment to this school. We have taken numerous other cost-reduction measures that total well over $1 million in the coming school year, all while protecting the essence of the Burr and Burton experience. Your support means so much. Burr and Burton has been built with private dollars, and your donations are what sets us apart and allows us to offer such extraordinary opportunities to this community of learners. On behalf of the entire Burr and Burton community, thank you for making all of this possible.

Headmaster Mark Tashjian and Board Chair Seth Bongartz '72 congratulate new member of the Burr Society Trustee Carol Bresko O'Connor '67 at the Founders Day luncheon in May. All of the members of the Burr Society received the school's thanks for including Burr and Burton in their planned giving.

2009–2010 Annual Giving Campaign

Fiscal year July 1, 2009 to June 30, 2010

This report gratefully acknowledges gifts received between July 1, 2009 and June 30, 2010. Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy and completeness of this report. In the preparation of such reports, however, errors occasionally do occur despite our best efforts. Please accept our apologies for any errors or omissions and report them to the Advancement Office at 802-549-8110.

A Planned Gift Benefits You in More Ways Than One

What could be better than doing good? When it comes to a planned gift, consider there may be tax benefits, reductions in your taxable estate, and in the case of annuities or trusts, steady income for you the donor.

Whether you are interested in a bequest, trust, charitable gift annuity or other planned gift, you receive more than the satisfaction of supporting a worthy cause. Talk with your accountant or financial advisor about the type of planned gift that is right for you and your family.

Looking for steady retirement income? Burr and Burton's Charitable Gift Annuities provide you (and another recipient if you choose) with guaranteed income for life. The rates are much higher than CDs and money markets and part of the income may be tax free. There's no volatility, an added comfort in uncertain markets. Contact your advisor or Rich Thompson Tucker, Associate Director of Advancement at 802-549-8135 and by e-mail at rthompson@burrburton.org for a copy of our Planned Giving guide. Visit our website for more information and sample rates at www.burrburton.org/giving then go to Planned Giving and Charitable Gift Annuities. Doing good never made so much sense.

All planned gifts are immediately matched dollar for dollar by the Rowland Endowment Challenge when you inform us in writing about that part of your plan that pertains to Burr and Burton.

The Joseph Burr Society recognizes alumni, trustees, parents and friends of the school who have followed in the footsteps of Joseph Burr and Josiah Burton. Burr Society members have either funded or planned a deferred gift, such as a bequest or a life income plan. To this day, Burr and Burton relies heavily on the generosity of donors whose thoughtful planning produces living, lasting results.

Haitian Scholarship Fund

Hosting three Haitian teens for the winter/spring semester opened our eyes to a critical need. In a country that has been completely devastated by an earthquake, all basic systems have been destroyed, including the educational system. When asked by the State Department to consider taking two high school students, Burr and Burton Academy took three. Three Burr and Burton families stepped up to the plate and took these students into their homes, without hesitation. The school absorbed the cost of the tuition. All three students, Jenty, Olivier and Jean had an amazing experience.

While one of our Haitian students graduated, the other students want to return for their senior year and we want them to come back, too. The Board of Trustees and Headmaster Mark Tashjian established a Haitian scholarship fund with a goal of raising $60,000 to help cover the costs of hosting these students, and possibly bring additional students here from Haiti. The fund will cover tuition, all activities, books and will provide a stipend to host families to help with food and other expenses associated with Haitian student homestays.

To date we have raised about 60 percent of the goal. An alumnus has issued a challenge and will match contributions dollar for dollar. If you wish to contribute to this fund, please contact Cynthia Gubb, Director of Advancement at 802-549-8201 or by email at cgubb@burrburton.org.

Endowed Funds

Endowment funds provide a perpetual source of annual income for many different programs, scholarships and general operating expenses. The following is a list of our endowment funds and the year they were established. These funds are making a difference right now for our current students and will continue to provide support for future generations. We are most grateful to all of our donors who have had the vision and commitment to Burr and Burton to establish a fund.

FROM THE ADVANCEMENT OFFICE

Dear Friends,

I like to share with you five simple rules to be happy:

Free your heart from hatred.

Free your mind from worries.

Live simply.

Give more.

Expect less.

What do these few words have to do with fundraising? Here are my thoughts.

Free your heart from hatred.

An open heart is one that sees opportunity, welcomes new experiences and finds a way to make the world a better place. Burr and Burton opened its collective heart on many an occasion this past year. We welcomed three Haitian students to our community after the devastating earthquake in January. We reached out to several families who experienced the devastating loss of a son, a father, and other cherished family members. We supported a number of BBA students and their families through illnesses, accidents and other health challenges. Our students reached out to others in need in our local and global communities through various service learning projects and fundraising events. Everyone did their part to open their hearts to the need at hand.

While we expected nothing in return, we were graced by an outpouring of warmth and generosity of spirit throughout this community that would astound anyone. Students who participated in Godspell gave the gate receipts to Haiti relief efforts. Community members and businesses never said no to students efforts to raise money for a worthy cause.

Free your mind from worry.

In this business, we worry constantly about meeting the goal for the year because it's so important to the students, the faculty and the school. But when you let go of the worry it somehow happens! An awesome Off the Wall Gala committee came together with an incredible leader at the helm to create a magical evening of fun and fundraising. The school received an anonymous gift for $20,000 for the annual fund in memory of a friend. And then we received confirmation of several bequests from Class of 1960 alumni for their reunion gifts.

Live simply. Give more. Expect less.

We keep it simple here at BBA and spend our dollars wisely, thoughtfully, responsibly. We continue to look at ways to reduce costs. We were asked to do more with less, and faculty and staff responded – all salaries were held at last year's levels. Departments looked at their budgets one more time and found ways to cut out a little more or wait another year. We gave more and expected less. And it was okay. Why?

Because YOU gave more. This year's annual fund was a resounding success. Not only did we meet our goal of $450,000, we surpassed it, all because of your amazing generosity. Gifts came in all sizes. If ten dollars worked for you, it worked for us. If $50,000 worked for you, we gratefully accepted that gift too and knew it would all add up in the end. We received support from our Board of Trustees (100% as always), our parents, grandparents, faculty and staff, local businesses, past parents, alumni, former board members, Advisory Council members, Alumni Association members and friends of the school. It was an all out effort that worked.

Your support is an overwhelming endorsement for what we do here at Burr and Burton Academy. We educate all students, we nurture them, encourage them, ask them to stretch, to think big, dream, reach for the stars yet ground them with the skills they need to make it in the world beyond this campus. Your generosity makes this happen.

There is only one way I can think of to end this year end summary – to let you know how very happy we are with the results of this year's annual giving campaign, and to simply say a very heartfelt THANK YOU.

Warmest regards,

Cynthia Gubb
