

BBA Twitter Notification System

Dear BBA Parents and Students,

There is now a convenient way to receive notifications on your cell phone regarding school closings, delayed openings, important reminders, and even school related emergencies.

If you are interested, complete ALL of the steps below IN ORDER:

I. Subscribe to Twitter (Skip this step if you're already on Twitter)

- Browse to <http://twitter.com/> and select "Sign Up Now"
- Create a Twitter account with your BBA Gmail or personal email address

II. Program your cell phone

- Select Settings > Mobile and follow the instructions to receive Twitter Updates on your cell phone.

III. Follow "burrburton"

- From your Twitter account, select Find People, type burrburton, and choose to Follow

IV. Verify

- To verify that you'll receive text alerts, select Home > Following and make sure the phone icon to the right of burrburton is GREEN

Important

This new notification system will only be used for school closings, delayed openings or other school emergencies, so the total number of text messages will be minimal.
